
Introduction

In Abundant Acquisition we pride ourselves in being informed on the world around us.

We are building a network centered around topics than encourage self reflection and critical thinking.

From Philosophy and History to Wellness and Finance. There is something for everyone. Our top priority is you leveraging your Intellectual Property as we believe that knowledge is the purest form of portable wealth.

My aim with this project is to add to that knowledge base

A.A Perspective is going to be centered around weekly reviews and forecasts of impactful market news and geopolitical events.

Overtime this will turn into a interactive record of events.

Please explore and expand on everything. It is my intention to link definitions while keeping the surface report clear and concise.

I am going to do my best to have a report out before premarket on Sunday weekly.

Personal Note

Publishing this weekly consensus is my commitment to accountability; it ensures I never get lazy with the data I process. Not everyone has the time to comb through global financial reports, my role here is to filter and curate that raw data so you can perform your own due diligence.

The markets are a machine of alignment, fine-tuned to a specific frequency. Think of it like a radio station: you need the right information just to find the channel. Once you are tuned in, you must understand the language (the technicalities) to interpret the message. Through this project, I aim to give you some coordinates needed to tune into that frequency.

Context allows me to identify the dominant weight in the market, but fluidity allows me to sustain myself when the balance shifts. I use data to build a thesis, but I use discipline to abandon it the moment the facts change. The market is a constant force of opposing objectives; only when enough of them align do we see a trend.

I'm building this in the open to stay sharp for the Abundant Acquisition community. If these reports help you find clarity in the chaos, pass them along to someone else who would benefit from that edge. By saving this site to your desktop, you're staying connected to a record of events that will only become more valuable as the history of this cycle is written.
